It will provide for the visionary projects of that eminent statesman, the main theory of which is in substance about as follows: Money must be loaned by the government on any quality of lands, of course subject to an named by the government, one by the county in which applicant resides, and the other by the applicant himself. By its provision the county is to become directly responsible for the money, and while the government will be required to take mortgages the county in which the land is situated will be responsible for their payment. The money is to be on long time and at a low rate of interest. Of course it is not yet known how will be readily seen that, after leaving out all the contingencies of false appraisements, the honest property holder, through taxation, may be responsible for the payment of the mortgage of an- close association. The recourse would then be on the treasury of the county, the capital of which comes from the property holders. Next to the theory of the Texas alliance that money should be loaned by the government on corn and potatoes, this is certainly the most ridicatous.

However much they may talk there are high tariff democrats and lots of them. They are being, to some extent, kept in the back-ground since the death of Mr. Randall, but there are numbers of them, and they all bave friends who may be insignificant but when elections come around they make themselves felt. German Syrup

Here is an incident from the South country. "I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last MR. A. REDBWILL: Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and worse and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I ot two bottles of German Syru began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip-top and have felt that way ever since." PETER J. BRIALS, Jr., Cayuga, Hines Co., Miss.
